

Repainting your wall:

1. Whitewashing your walls: This is one of the key factors which can make your walls look fresh. ...
2. Cleaning your walls: ...
3. Stain removing: ...
4. Wall care for dents and scratches: ...
5. Vacuum your walls regularly: ...
6. Use glossy paint: ...
7. Clean your walls thoroughly before painting: ...
8. Dampness/leakage in the wall:

WALLPAPER INSTALLATION, MAINTENANCE & CARE INSTRUCTIONS

- Wallpaper hangs best on clean and smooth surfaces. So take the time to remove old wallpaper, fill in any cracks, and repair imperfections in the wall. In the case of painted walls, smoothen them out with sandpaper.
- Once all the repairs are done and your walls are smooth, use a soapy sponge to clean them. Rinse with clean water and allow to dry before proceeding.
- Bubbles and creases are caused by air bubbles underneath the paper and can be the result of uneven smoothing. This can be avoided by smoothing down the centre of the strip first and then smooth outward.
- Relatively easy to maintain, wallpapers can be cleaned using dry or wet methods such as vacuuming wallpaper or dusting with a dampened sponge/soft cloth.
- Do not use abrasive cleaners.
- When vacuuming, use a soft brush attachment to avoid damaging the texture.
- In case of using a water-based medium for cleaning, use a sponge that's been lightly dampened in a solution of water and a drop of dish soap. Don't get the wallpaper too wet. Always test an inconspicuous spot first. If the wallpaper absorbs the water or the colours bleed, it is not washable.

Wallcovering Care & Cleaning

Follow these wallcovering care steps when cleaning washable wall coverings:

Start from the bottom of the wall and work up.

Gently sponge with a mild detergent in warm water.

Rinse thoroughly with clean warm water, using a sponge.

Do not use abrasive cleaners.

Always wipe with the seams (usually up and down)

Dry with a soft, lint-free cloth.

For wallpaper that is not washable or delicate, you should clean your wallpaper with a dry cleaning sponge or a dry cleaning eraser. Grasscloths and textiles may be vacuumed with a clean vacuum cleaner brush.

A key benefit of wallcoverings is durability. The finest wallcoverings are carefully designed to resist knocks; this allows them to protect wall surfaces and retain appearance overtime. That is, unlike paint, they do not require long-term 'refresher' coat maintenance.

Specific cleaning instructions, including durability and stain-resistance are included on every roll of wall covering and should always be read and understood.

