Bath Linen Care:

- Don't use fabric softener when washing your bath linen, or its absorbency may reduce.
- Always pre-wash and wash them separately, according to its color.
- Wash bath towels separately to avoid pulls from hardware such as buttons and zippers.
- Dilute the detergent with water and don't pour it directly on the bath linens.

- Avoid letting your bath linen come in contact with makeup or skin care products. If they do, wash it off gently with cold water before you load them into the machine.
- Tumble dry on medium heat and do not iron.

Make sure you follow the instruction on the care label properly for every bed and bath linen product you buy online for the perfect result and good care to ensure their longevity. Visit SPACES.in for premium bed and bath linen, which is easy to care for.

Use of bath linen.

They are perfect for wrapping around your body if you need or prefer more coverage. A bath sheet works well if you like to stay wrapped in a towel while drying your hair, shaving, or applying makeup. Bath sheets take longer to dry and require more storage space than standard bath towels.
