

Competitive series

(Part15)

World geography

-By Dr. Vishal Saxena

1. Which one of the following city is nearest to the equator?

Ans- Singapore

2. Which strait is closest to the international dateline?

Ans- Bering strait

3. Kamchatka peninsula is extension of ?

Ans- Russia

4. Iberian peninsula comprises of?

Ans- Spain-Portugal

5. Which scholar has suggested that the earth has originated from the gases and the dust particles?

Ans- O. Schimidt

6. Great Ice Age is related to?

Ans- Pleistocene

7. Continents have drifted apart because of?

Ans- Tectonic activities

8. Origin of metamorphic rocks occur from?

Ans- Igneous and sedimentary rocks

9. Which gas has the maximum percentage in atmosphere?

Ans- Nitrogen

10. Which layer protects life on earth from the harmful radiations of the sun?

Ans- ozone layer

11. Which layer of the atmosphere is responsible for Aurora borealis?

Ans- Ionosphere

12. The term used to describe Reddish-colored rain carrying sand from the Sahara desert to Mediterranean?

Ans- Blood-rain (This phenomenon is observed in Italy)

13. a horizontal line to the sea level from where heights and depths are measured?

Ans- Datum line

14. The river- duo which falls into the black sea are?

Ans- Dnieper- Danube

15. Great-Barrier Reef is?

Ans- A coral-reef near Australia

16. The worlds largest and most dense forests are in?

Ans- Brazil

17. The busiest sea-route of the world?

Ans- North-Atlantic ocean

18. Worlds longest railroad tunnel Seiken is in?

Ans- Japan

19. The coffee port of the world?

Ans- Santos (Brazil)

20. Largest cotton producing country in the world?

Ans- china

21. Large coffee plantation in Brazil are called?

Ans- Fazendas

22. Maginot line demarcates the border between?

Ans- The border between France and Germany

23. 38 parallel borderline divides which of the two countries?

Ans- North Korea and South Korea

24. Tamil is considered as a major language in which country excluding India?

Ans- Singapore

25. Which is the second most abundant metal in the earth?

Ans- Iron